What's Happenin' Aprilin the woods

Dear Tom,

Spring is here with the promise of warmer weather. And with spring comes spring cleaning, spring repairs and spring upgrades. And this is exactly what we have been doing. I hope you like the changes that are coming.

Thanks for signing up.

Here Comes Peter...

Pastels colors, chocolate, and cute things named Peter. Come on Down to ITW this Easter Weekend for our 7th annual Dirty Easter Egg Hunt and our Hat and Salad party. Enjoy our potluck as we provide the ham.

→ 9/10 Share the Woods is back

The Second Weekend each month during the summer, ITW offers a promotional discounted weekend to its already low prices! Yep, its called Share the Woods with a Friend. And, it is happening on April 9/10. Bring a friend, and share your spot with him. Rooms, cabins or whatever you want to share is fine with us. Membership for your friend is not included.

What a great way to show your friends what a wonderful place ITW for free. Now isn't it great when you can get it for free?

→ 15/18 Closed for Family Reunion

We are having our family down for the weekend. Annual members are allowed to have their family down too during this weekend. Accommodations may or may not be available for annual members' family members.

Unfortunately, the campground will be closed to the general public this weekend.

→ Annual Sites (your home away from home)

Annual sites allow you to come and go as you want, as often as you want. But let's think outside the box now. An Annual Site doesn't mean you have to put a camper on it. It could be a tent site or even something really creative like a platform with a teepee on it. And, let's not forget to mention that an Annual Site is very economical. From less than 4.50 a day, I suspect less than a "cup a joe" from a coffee shop, you can have a vacation spot to use all year long.

Don't have a trailer or a camper to put on it? Occasionally, we have RV's already set up on the lot for a turn key operation.

The full hookup sites provide you with the freedom of having your RV, Popup, or Tent ready to use on a moment's notice.

In my head...

Spring is here. With it comes renovations and upgrades. We have been working non-stop to upgrade the structures on the property. The cabins have been upgraded. Now each cabin has a deck, 2 double beds and satellite tv. The game room has been eliminated with a new sitting area in its place. The dining area also has had a face lift. Below are the decided color schemes for all ITW buildings on the property. Here are some pics of the changes. Come check them out yourself in person.

Coming Up Next Month:
Cinco De Mayo
Memorial Day -- BOOK NOW!

Sincerely,

Tom
